Risk notification

Dzengi Closed Joint Stock Company hereby warn about the following risks:

1. Tokens are not legal tender and are not required to be accepted as a means of payment.
2. The Republic of Belarus, its administrative and territorial units, the Supervisory Board of the High Technologies Park and the administration of the High Technologies Park are not liable to token owners for their technical and legal properties, both as declared during their creation and placement and necessary for token owners to achieve the goals they set when acquiring tokens.
3. Tokens are not provided by the state.
4. Acquisition of tokens may lead to complete loss of funds and other objects of civil rights (investments) transferred in exchange for tokens (including as a result of token cost volatility; technical failures (errors); illegal actions, including theft).
5. The distributed ledger technology (blockchain), other distributed information system and similar technologies are innovative and constantly updated, which implies the need for periodic updates (periodic improvement) of the information system of Dzengi CJSC and the risk of technical failures (errors) in its operation.
6. Certain tokens sold by Dzengi CJSC may be of value only when using the information system of Dzengi CJSC and (or) the services rendered by Dzengi CJSC.
7. As the attitude of different states (their regulators) to token transactions (operations) and approaches to their legal regulation differ from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, there is a risk that contracts between Dzengi CJSC and its clients or their particular terms and conditions may be invalid and (or) unenforceable in certain states.
8. Visiting the “Dzengi.com” website and purchasing services from Dzengi CJSC by the cardholder may be illegal in the country where they are located.

9. The cardholder is responsible for complying with the laws of the country they are in when visiting the “Dzengi.com” website and/or attempting to purchase services from Dzengi CJSC, if such actions are prohibited by the laws of that country.
